J. W. FULLER'S NETTIE MARCHMONT WINS JUVENILE RACE AT WINDSOR.

Backed Into Favoritism from Liberal Odds at Opening and Makes Good Decisively-Cliff Edge Sets New Track Record.

Jockey Phil Musgrave has contracted to ride for Francis J. Pons during the coming winter at Jacksonville.

Jockey Gross fractured his nose as a result of his fall from Rockeastle in the eighth race yesterday and was unable to ride today.

Jockey Taplin was also forced to cancel his engagements. The lad fell from a box while helping to unload when the Mackenzie stable arrived here and fractured one of his ribs. Strange to say, he did not discover the seriousness of his injury until after he had ridden a couple of races yesterday.

John Fay, a well-known western bookmaker, was an arrival from Saratoga this morning. He will journey to Cincinnati.

Fred Gerhardy received word this afternoon that dates had been granted by the Jockey Club for the proposed meeting at the new track near Washington, D. C. W. Richardson, a well-known merchant of

D. C. W. Richardson, a well-known merchant of Jacksonville and owner of Veneta Strome, was a visitor at the course this afternoon. A. R. London, secretary of the Hamilton Jockey Club, was also a secretary of the Hamman visitor.

The two-year-old, Capsize, owned by Forrest Rose, bruised his foot in yesterday's race and will be on the shelf for a few weeks.

Ben Falk and George Hickey, of Toronto, were among the new layers that cut in this afternoon.

Detroit, Mich., August 30.—J. W. Long odds were quoted about the weight of the Texan's money forced her price down, and she went to the post a well-backed favorite. Nettle Marchmont simply made a show of the drew away into a long lead and won by half a dozen lengths. Nettle Marchmont was bred at Mr. Fuller's Texas ranch and probably will be a useful sort of filly. Only two favorites won, but a majority of the winners were well backed and it is doubtful it the books profited on the afternoon's play.

RACE TRACK PROGRAMMER DIES.

Washington Baudoine, for many years a familiar figure on the eastern race tracks, died Sunday at his home in New York of rheumatism and a complication of diseases. Mr. Baudoine was 58 years old and leaves a son and two daughters. For a number of years he had the program privilege at the different New York tracks, but last season and this illness prevented him from taking an active part in the business, in which he accumulated a fortune.

DANOSCARA SCORES IN THE HANDICAP FEA-TURE OF SARATOGA CARD.

ampton Court Runs Disappointingly and Finishes Second to Big Stick-Old Jimmy Lane Breaks Record for Number of Victories Over Jumps.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 30.—For the last day but one of racing over the course of the Saratoga Association a program of overnight races was furnished, and while three of the six public choices were first at the finish, there were some decided surprises that came in the running-off of the card. One of the most marked upsets was the winning of Whin at 15 to 1, and another was the disappointing race run by Hanpton Court when he was easily disposed of by the selling plater, Big Stick. It was another bright day, the track was at its best and the attendance large. Many New Yorkers, who came for the running of the Futurity tomorrow, appeared on the scene and there will be more accessions tonight and tomorrow morning.

The handicap of the day was over the mile and an eighth distance and it went to John Sanford's good mare Danoscara, though she had to be smartly ridden out to beat home Bob R., which colt was at his best. Hildreth scratched his top weight, Firestone, and pinned his faith to Woodcraft, the latter being in under ninety-nine pounds. Woodcraft ran a wonderfully good race and it is altogether likely that with a stronger rider than Thomas in the saddle he would have been the one to crowd the winner at the finish. All through the early stages he was a distant trailer and through the stretch he closed an immense gap to be third. Danoscara beat Bob R. only three parts of a length, while Bob R, in turn was only a half length before Woodcraft.

When old Jimmy Lane cantered in front of O. K. all the way to win the full course steeplechase, it marked his twenty-seventh victory through the field. This is said to represent an American record, as Onward, winner of twenty-six races, is credited with having previously held the record.

Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.'s good filly, Savannah, was winner of the five and a half-furlongs dash for maidens, though right at the end she was straight to beat Zillah. There were sky that went to the post and Lady Rosalie created a sensation on the way to the post by her efforts to buck fockey

FUTURITY FIELD AND ODDS.

Jockey Club, to be run as the fourth race tomorrow, and overnight indications are that all of them will be seen under colors. The track is fast and should remain so, no rain threatening.

The form of each horse in the field is known, and it is regarded as an open race for S. C. Hildreit, Novelty, coupled with Zeus, as the probable choice. Bashti, the filly for which H. P. Whitney paid $30,000, will be a close second choice. She has not been to the races since her victory in the Spinaway, but she has been working well and is fit and ready to race. James R. Keene has but one representative, though two others that were nominated by him will race, in Swepaway, sold to James Rowe, and Love-Not, purchased by E. R. Pradley, Naushon is the entry of Richard T. Wilson, Jr., and August Belmont will be represented by Footprint and Babbler. Following is a table of the Futurity field, with the jockeys that will ride and the probable odds:

John Brannon was suspended at Delorimier Park, Montreal, because of the inconsistent running of his horse Ned Carmack.

horse Ned Carmack.

Frank Nolan offered John G. Greener a substantial sum for Countless before the running of the Saratoga Cup. If the Tennesseean does not sell the three-year-old son of The Commoner today he will be shipped in J. W. May's car to Louisville and will be raced during the coming winter at Juarez.

H. P. Warner, owner of the Harkaway Stable, has turned over Nosegay, the two-year-old Nasturilum gelding formerly trained by William R. Griffin, to J. W. May. Mr. Warner intends to purchase some good material for fall and winter racing and they will be campaigned on the Kentucky tracks and at Juarez.

The veteran Peter Will.

The veteran Peter Wimmer will ship Any Port and several other horses in training, together with a bunch of yearlings, the property of Catesby Woodford and himself, to Louisville at the end of the Saratoga-meeting. Mr. Wimmer has trained with success many high-class racers, including Ben Holladay and Kinley Mack, winner of the Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps in 1900.

LOUISVILLE STAKES TO CLOSE TODAY.

Louisville, Ky., August 30.—Entries for the ten stakes to be decided at the fall meeting at Churchii bowns, beginning October 1, will close tomorrow at midnight. Nearly 200 entries have so far been received. Secretary Lyman H. Bavis is of the opinion that the list will equal any of other seasons and on account of the horses coming from the east the class of entries will far surpass in quality those of the past. The events to be decided are:

St. Leger Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, 1 1-46 miles; value $2,000.

Frank Fehr Handicap, for all ages, 1 mile; and 20 yards; value $2,000.

Falls City Handicap, for all ages, 1 mile; value $2,000.

South Louisville Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, 3-4 mile; value $2,000.

Shawnee Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and anoward, 1 1-46 miles; value $1,500.

Cherokee Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, 1 mile; value $1,500.

Maple Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, 4 mile; value $1,500.

Autumn Stakes, for two-year-olds, 3-4 mile; value $1,500.

Golden Rod Selling Stakes, for two-year-olds, 3-4 $1,500.

Golden Rod Selilag Stakes, for two-year-olds, 3-4 mile; value $1,500.

The exact number of entries received for those stakes up today is 182. This is an average of more than eighteen to the stake and an excellent showing considering that these events will not finally close until tomorrow night. A majority of horsenen wait until the last anoment to make entres and it is helieved now by Secretary Davis that the entry list to the ten stakes will exceed expectations.

the entry list to the ten stakes will exceed expectations.

At this time, though the beginning of the meeting is more than four weeks off, every stall is booked at Caurchill Downs and those now applying are listed for Douglas Park. The nominees for stakes are of course given the preference in the apportionment of stable quarters and that accounts for Churchill Downs being crowded at this time. The convenience of the latter track when the race meeting is on is the only cause for owners preferring to stable there, as it is a well-known fact that whenever a trainer has had experience at both plants he invariably selects Douglas Park on his return here. Trainer C. C. Van Meter affords an illustration of this, Last spring he had quarters at the Downs, but on his return from his summer caupaign he selected Douglas Park, though at the time he arrived here he could have had nearly the pick of any stable at the track which lies closest to the city.

E. R. Bradley wired today for stalls for fifteen

E. R. Bradley wired today for stalls for fifteen lorses instead of twelve that he had previously spoken for, the increase being for horses that he recently purchased in the east, including the $7.000

Another siring booked for stabling at the bowns

From the west come applications for stable room at Douglas Park by the veteran Missouri breeder. S. L. Cheney, who this season raced a string of horses in Kentucky for the first time. He is bringing here the get of The Purlian and Loci, once a star in the Cincinnati stable of "Doc" McLean.

A. B. Lowe has entered Foxy Mary for four stakes at Charchill Downs for the fall meeting.

Earl Limell will come to Churchill Downs from Saratoga with a useful stable. He has one or more entries in every stake event here. Guy Garner, who heads the American jockey list for 1940, will ride his horses.

W. E. Applegate, whose racers will be brought from Saratoga, will send six horses to the bost at the fall meeting at the Downs. The remainder of his string will be turned out at Lexington.

W. M. Wallace will bring four horses from Saratoga to Churchill Downs.

A. B. Steele, of Lexington, has written to Secretary Lyman H. Davis that he has eleven horses, nine of which will be raced here this fall.

ENGLISH HORSES FOR MEXICO.

Galveston, Tex., August 30.—Interest in racing in Mexico is becoming keen, and contracts have been awarded for the shipment of 300 blooded stallions and mares from England for breeding purposes.

James E. Cresswell. of London, England, representing an English syndicate, has just returned from a tour in Mexico, carrying contracts for the sale of the blooded horses. "By the opening of the next racing season there will be four tracks in operation in Mexico," said Mr. Cresswell, "one each at Juarez, Cuernavaca, Guadalajara and Chibuahua, giving that country twelve months of continued racing,

"Over $3.000.000 is now invested in horses and tracks in Mexico, and several Mexican government officials are heavily interested in the promotion of the sport. A ranch of 10.000 acres in the state of Chibuahua is being specially arranged as a stock raising farm for racing stock."
